

12.16.10

MMPI Welcomes New Hires

Trade show and property management firm MMPI welcomes two new staff members: Katherine Skelton and Nancy Michael.

Katherine Skelton has been appointed the new Director of Leasing for the L.A. Mart Gift, and she'll take part in all of the leasing and sales activities. Skelton has been in the specialty leasing industry for 14 years, specializing in shopping centers ranging from regional to high-end. She previously held a position with Simon Property Group in Florida, Washington D.C. and Orange County. In addition, Skelton was the leasing manager at Macerich Company and a specialty leasing assistant at Rouse Company.

Nancy Michael joins MMPI as the new Senior Marketing and Strategy Director for the Gift & Home Décor industry. Michael will be working with the management teams for the California Gift Show, The Chicago Market and 7W and will work on MMPI's marketing efforts, including advertising, special events, public relations, websites, sponsorships, buyer relationships and more. Previously, Michael served as Director of Marketing for Tag, Ltd. and as the Sales Manager for the Chicago-based company, Chefwear.